FOREWORD

The arduous task of producing a yearbook comes to one but once in a lifetime. We, realizing this privilege, have maybe unconsciously let duty subdue our initial precepts. Yet while stumbling through our debut in journalism, our zeal has been unquenchable.

Our paramount objective is to perpetuate our golden college days here at Smith. If in our attempt at animating these fleeting moments, we do please our candid public, then we are eternally grateful.

OUR

DEDICATION

Too long has the vigilance and the efficiency of our night watchman been overlooked.

The ungodly hours, the bitter cold, the drenching rains, have found our nocturnal guardian impeccably imperturbed.

To this unsung protectorate whose mute love for our Alma Mater is only audible to all those who respect him, we do dedicate this yearbook, with esteem and gratitude.

THE BULL STAFF

DR. HARDY LISTON

PRESIDENT

I have peculiar pleasure in extending greetings to the Class of 1951. In a sense, I am a member of the Class. We started as Freshmen together—I in my first year as President of the University and you in your first year in college.

As parting time comes, I trust you shall find that you are held to your Alma Mater and to one the other by spiritual bonds and that this book shall be an instrument to that end.

I would leave with you the word UNDERSTANDING. One of the major aims of your college course should be to seek UNDERSTANDING—Understanding of the physical universe, of society and its institutions, of man and human relations, and of God.

I hope that your four years in college have given you a good start on the way to UNDERSTANDING and that through the fuller understanding of your generation our world may find and maintain peace.

CLASS HISTORY

In September of 1947 there arrived on the campus of Johnson C. Smith University the members of what proved to be the most energetic, versatile and industrious class in the history of the University. Green days were hard days and a few dropped by the wayside but those left were drawn closer together and at the end of the first semester this class was found rushing eagerly to register for the next lap of the long race to education land. Joyce Venable and George Flanigan won the outstanding scholarship awards given by Kappa Alpha Psi for having the best scholastic records for the semester in the class. Of course it was acknowledged too that a greater number of Freshmen had made honor roll averages and averages above 1.5 than in many a freshman class. Early in its life as a class this group of students coming from as far south as B. W. I. and as far north as Boston, had shown their wares and won approval and awe. All were still talking about the great talent shown at the Freshman Talent Night, where Paul Johnson and Maggie Lynch thrilled the crowd. Many were heard to remark, "Why these dogs conduct themselves like upperclassmen already." On the athletic field and hardwood floor, in the classroom and in every phase of campus life the freshmen were outstanding. At the end of the first semester we were organized with George Flanigan as president and then we did go places. Why every task undertaken by the class was a roaring success. The next year found our ranks still smaller by number but stronger in unity and we marched off with the coveted cup for making the greatest contribution to the Negro College Fund campaign. Now when we gave our great Sophomore Ball that was when we broke all records. Why, the social life of our class was nothing but the elite. It was acknowledged by all as the best planned, most beautiful and orderly dance given on the campus in history. Even Dean Grimes thought Smith was another mirage when he was greeted at the door and ushered into the lovely setting where soft music played. Why, even Buddy Pickett had the ladies dressing room in pink and white. During the year Dot Brice and Fay Cunningham were awarded cups as tokens for their outstanding contributions to student life and activities. All sophomore men won letters for their achievements in athletics. Flap Flanigan was our president again and in September, 1949, when we came back for our Junior year there wasn't a single organization or activity carried on that did not feel the influence directly or indirectly of the class of 51. During the year a record number of students were taken into honor societies and, of course, the Junior class led with number of members. Outstanding scholarship and community responsibility was the theme of all class activity as we organized with Alex Byers as president. Under the guidance of the dance chairman, Paul Johnson, the class started collecting its funds for the Junior-Senior Prom at the beginning of the year and this foresightedness paid off but good. The class of 51 gave the grandest Junior-Senior Prom in the history of Smith. Like little soldiers, male and female members of the class scrubbed and waxed the gym from top to bottom and for weeks the girls' dormitories had been humming with the sound of favors and decorations being made. The great night arrived and the campus was spellbound at what they saw in Hary Woods gym. Class members attended many national and international conferences and served as spark plugs to many worthwhile delegations, with skill and dignity. Under the presidency of our calm and able leader, Alex Byers, we came back to Smith the September of 1950, a more dignified and thoughtful class. Many of our classmates had been called to active duty in military service and all young men were expecting to be called at any moment but oh happy day, the letters of postponement began to come through and the boys could be here until graduation. Now to settle down to hard study and enjoyment of our last year as students at dear Ole J.C.S.U. Practice teaching separated us for a short time but we came back with a renewed sense of responsibility and with eyes opened wide to the job ahead. Why, it's graduation time and it seems like yesterday that we came wide eyed and green. Why, we are leaving the old Vma Mater for grad-schools, jobs and military posts. No matter how far one may roam there is one thing that will always take him back to places and faces so dear, and that is memories. This class is rich with memories and so as a group we are wealthy. Farewell for awhile Johnson C. Smith University, but the class of 51 will live on united forever whether we are together physically or not.

Class Historians: Herman "Baby" Abel, George "Flap" Flanigan, F. D. Reese, Gerry Clark, Elith Rev'n'ls.

The Golden Bulls of Johnson C. Smith University approached the "50" Campaign with a grim determination. Coach Jack Brayboy thought that this would be the season of seasons. With the returning of twenty-two lettermen, Smith was statistically a veteran team. As the first game drew nearer, the team's tackling, blocking, and play-making became sharper. The last week-end in September an impatient herd of Bulls met the St. Paul Saints at Lawrenceville, Virginia. From the opening whistle to the final gun, the team from Charlotte dominated the field of play. Coach Brayboy used every one except the water boy, and if I remember correctly he was warning up. In this game the entire team was ready.

The following week, Mr. Bobby Clark, Roland Miles, and the St. Augustine team motored to our campus. A cocky team of Smith men contemplated a pushover. That fateful day, Mr. Clark and Miles did everything but dance on the gridiron. They faked, passed and literally ran us out of the stadium. A valuable lesson was learned that dark day.

Northward to the flat land of Delaware the enriched Bulls traveled. A beautiful Saturday afternoon a small Smith team took on Mighty Delaware State. The men from State outweighed the Charlotte group twenty pounds to the man. Revenge lurked in the hearts of the fighting Bulls. Throughout the day the men consistently shouted, "Let's take them to the Bull Pen." The cards were stacked wrong. Statistically Delaware won the game but Smith men outplayed them. Not once during the entire contest did we kick. The records will prove that they booted many. I shall never forget the heart of Will Allison and Napoleon Nelson. No greater fighting spirit was displayed by anyone than these two.

Homecoming, Alumni, dances, and parades, The Bisons from Howard ventured to the sunny South. On the squared rectangle of Memorial Field the two teams locked. For Howard, there was nothing that day. They were bottled in their every attack. Midway through the second quarter Little Horse Blackwell intercepted a flat pass and scooted thirty-five yards for the first touchdown. We missed the conversion and the score at halftime was six to nothing favor Smith. The second half brought a fast changing, hard running Howard eleven back. Smith men asked for no favors and gave no ground. The two evenly matched teams were fighting it out. Someone had to meet its Waterloo. Five minutes before the final gun, the Bisons pushed over the goal stripes. The overflowing stadium waited and the referee threw up his hands; the conversion was good. A heart-breaker was lost.

Under the lights at Winston-Salem the belligerent Rams encountered the seasoned Bulls. Long will the fans remember the stonewall of the Smith line. Eight times were the Rams within the four yard marker. So close and yet so far, within sight of the goal line they failed to score. The game was high lighted by a seventy-five yard passing run which climaxed on the T. C. seven. Here the game ended. The same story was repeated. The Golden Bulls had outplayed them but not outscored the less formidable opponents.

To the citrus groves, and the swaying palms, we motored to Daytona Beach. I believe that the Florida weather was too much for us; perhaps the Bethune fellows played a minor roll. The student body welcomed us with open arms. They even sponsored a dance in our honor. Yes, we lost this one too. The score was 27 to 7, but you can believe that everyone had a good time basking in short sleeves.

The Turkey Day classic saw two teams fighting to stay off the bottom of the C.I.A.A. This was the last collegiate game of eleven seniors and the team was determined that it would be a victory. The Golden Bulls out foxed, out ran, and out played the Bears from Raleigh. The halftime score was seven to nothing in favor of the Charlotte crew. Midway through the third period, we again drew blood. With a major portion of the fourth quarter completed, the Bears scored on a quick opener. The conversion was good. The tallies now stood at 13 to 7 favor Smith. A desperate Shaw team began pulling from the bag. Repeatedly their passes clicked. As all seemed lost, a Bull reached into the air and intercepted a beautiful pass. The Golden Bulls ran the clock out with running plays.

In conclusion, the writer would like to inject a personal note. Although Smith did not enjoy a winning team figuratively, I think that we had one of the best teams in the C.I.A.A. The fellows were great and I believe that each of us profited greatly from the relationship. Never shall I forget those many long hours spent in the "Bull Pen" practicing until after dark and eating late, experiencing sweet victory and bitter defeat. It would be impossible to remember Buddy Elmer, Pickett, "Nap" Nelson, Psycho Davis, Pepper Yates, and many others. In my treasure chest of experiences, these will forever loom. Days spent on the gridiron of Smith are as much a part of me as the Science Hall.

In short, I cherish every precious minute. To you, the Golden Bulls of 1951, I extend a hearty good luck and make every block and tackle count.

GEORGE "FLAPPER" FLANIGAN
